

Tax Workshops are being postponed due to health concerns.

LSS staff are currently working on alternative solutions to help the campus community meet their tax filing obligations.

More information will be sent out via KU email next week.